Ross are rampant at the top of the league.

Ross Men's 1st XI continued their exciting league form away to Cirencester 'C' on Saturday, in the N4 Financial Solutions Gloucester and Hereford League Division Two. Whilst all the plaudits will quite rightly go to the forwards who were simply outstanding, a special mention should be made of the defence who put in additional training mid-week to make amends for the last game. Defensive coach, Edward Peck, said "I felt like I was under the most intense pressure, similar to undertaking a job interview for something like becoming chief executive of a major organisation. I'm just relieved it was successful and we can celebrate. The drinks are on me!"

Captain Tom Walton continued with his adventurous plan, with Richard Harbottle, Adrian Williams, Andy Cross and James Brown in advanced positions. They continually probed the Cirencester defence from the outset, whilst the Ross midfield of Tom Walton, Sam Warner and Kristian Franklin were at their commanding best, winning all the 50/50 balls. However the first goal took nearly twenty minutes in coming, when Tom Walton drove into the heart of the Cirencester defence and slammed a shot from just inside the D. Then, just before half time Adrian Williams scored his first with a rasping shot high into the top right corner.

At only 2-0 up, the half time team talk concentrated at keeping things simple and continuing with the new defensive formation of Brian Clare, Neil Bowen, James Adamson, Edward Peck and Greg Weston. As with the first half, the remainder of the match was all Ross. However the difference was that all the half chances created were uncharacteristically put away. Richard Harbottle, Andy Cross, James Brown and Sam Warner all made the score sheet with solitary goals, whilst Adrian Williams excelled by netting a further three goals, taking his tally to four. Andy Ridgway in goal was happy to keep his third clean sheet of the season.

Neil Bowen was voted South Hereford Motorcaravans Man of the Match.
