Ross cruise to victory.

Ross Men's 1st XI continued their exciting league form away to Lansdown 'C' on Saturday, in the N4 Financial Solutions Gloucester and Hereford League Division Two. Although not the most impressive result this season Lansdown offered very little to trouble Ross.

Tom Walton (1st XI Captain) kept a familiar formation that has proved so successful this season. Andy Cross, Richard Hardbottle and James Brown foraged upfront, feeding off passes and chasing the occasional long ball from defence. Whilst, as usual the midfield made up of Sam Warner, Adrian Williams, Tom Walton, Neil Bowen and Kristian Franklin dominated. It was only a matter of time before Adrian, midway through the first half opened the scoring after a well worked passing move along the left involving James Adamson and Sam Warner. He almost doubled his tally moments later, but a diving save from the Lansdown keeper thwarted him. Fortunately Richard Hardbottle was on hand and pounced on the rebound, pushing the ball just over the line.

At the start of the second half, Ross took advantage of Lansdown's lapse in concentration with James Brown scoring after a superb solo run from the halfway line in which he managed to ghost through their entire midfield and defence. Now 3-0 up and with temperatures falling, Ross sat back and soaked up what little Lansdown had left to throw at them. With the ever reliable defensive wall of Tim Jones, Brian Clare, Edward Peck, James Adamson and Richard Jennison standing firm, John Dean in goal for his first competitive match was rarely called into action.

Edward Peck was voted South Hereford Motorcaravans Man of the Match for his incorrigible strength in the tackle.
