Ross remain undefeated.

Following their match on Saturday against Cirencester 'B', in the N4 Financial Solutions Gloucester and Hereford League Division Two, Ross Mens 1st XI have now played every team at least once and remain undefeated at the top of the table. Overall, Ross probably put in one of their best performances of the season against an accomplished side who also remain undefeated. It was therefore disappointing not to translate this superiority into goals.

Tom Walton (1st XI Captain) kept the familiar formation that has proved so successful this season. Phil Evans, Richard Hardbottle and James Brown foraged upfront, with a midfield made up of Sam Warner, Adrian Williams, Tom Walton, Andy Cross and Kristian Franklin. However this match really was all about the total dominance of the defensive wall made up of James Adamson, Edward Peck, Greg Weston, Brian Clare, Tim Jones and Richard Jennison.

Cirencester were certainly no mugs and came to this fixture played in Monmouth with the intention of knocking Ross off the top spot. However they were reduced to a couple of shots on goal in open play, superbly saved by Andy Ridgway in goal and three penalty short corners. Ross on the other hand probably had twelve good shots on goal in open play and eight penalty short corners. Cirencester certainly walked off the pitch the happier of the two teams, with their captain so battered and exhausted he had to be reminded which team they had just come up against for their chorus of three cheers.

Special thanks must be extended to Pete Hughes and John Setchfield for officiating in such an exemplary manner. Sam Warner was voted South Hereford Motorcaravans Man of the Match for giving so much blood to the cause.
