Ross draw opener.

The collective essence of South Herefordshire skill & virility - Ross Hockey Club Second Eleven. Gathered to do battle with Cheltenham's slightly younger "D" Unit on Saturday. Who with their faster metabolism, skipped around the Ross defence early in the game to slot in goal number one. Goal number two came from a different era.(The days of the beach boys).Rich Harbottle rode the Ross waves, crashing through the Cheltenham 'D' wall with assistance from R.S.M Peck to smash in the Ross equalizer.

Harbottle is no one hit wonder and returned to the Cheltenham D, this time assisted by in -line skate ace Willem Haagen to hit the back board with goal number three giving Ross the lead.

Recent winner of TV's Pimp my Ride Chalkie White led his posse of young stars Seb Sullivan, Nick Clarke, Chris Late and The Couch twins up and down the pitch piecing together some fine 1-2 play only to find goal number four too elusive.

Unfortunately Cheltenham's man of the match Ginger Rogers danced through the Ross team to find goal number four and the equalizer to tie the match.

Special mention go to Andy Cross who ran himself ragged all game then onto an ambulance. After a hospital scan he received the all clear and will return to duty next Saturday.
