Ross 1st XI Draw to a close against Lansdown A

Ross were the hosts this weekend and looked confident of a win, the opposition however had every intention of causing a serious effect. Lansdown A wanted those three points, it soon occurred to the home team that it was going to be a dangerous game to win. Lansdown soon showed there wasn't going to be any monkey business when they stopped attackers Adrian Money Williams and Phil streetwalker Evans from scoring early on in the game, with a couple of other opportunities just being off the wall going wide. It didn't take Lansdown A long to get a break of dawn attack from their defence gaining on the Ross defenders Brian dirty diana Clare, Rich smooth criminal Jennison, Tony unbreakable Faulkner, Dave invincible Skyrme and Jack D.S Wilkinson. They managed to gain a short corner from their efforts, which drew keeper Andy scream Ridgway to make a save. Ross remained speechless that they hadn't scored yet which was soon made worse, when Lansdown took the lead an absolute heartbreaker for the home team. The midfielders Tom Walton, Sam Warner, Luke PYT Ward and Kristian Franklin worked furiously to keep the possession. It was only when Tom muscles Walton scored just before half-time that Ross' confidence was reinstated.

Half time team talk they had one more chance to pull it out of the bag don't stop til you get enough.

Second half and Lansdown A start and the home team want to win bad so push themselves to make the opposition feel threatened. It was all going well Ross had managed to get a few shots on target, but none were the thriller that they wanted. They had two short corners in quick succession unfortunately neither ended up in the net, the abc hockey wasn't going to plan this week for the home team. Lansdown A managed to break through the defence once again managing to get a short corner and after some controversy a flick was awarded to the opposition, Ridgway got a touch to it but was unable to stop them from scoring. The home side was once again in trouble playing catch up, in their state of shock the game was coming to a close, goals needed to be scored and fast. This time around Sam get on the floor Warner took the ball on a solo run getting one on one with the keeper and slotting it through his legs scoring the equaliser for his team just before the full time whistle blew. Unfortunately there, aint no sunshine this weekend for the Ross 1st XI only getting one point.

Thanks are due to our umpires
