Sweet taste of Victory.

Twelve months ago Ross 2^{nds} stuttered in their home match against Sherbourne A. Despite playing the entire match against just 10 men, Ross were unable to turn their superior possession into goals and suffered a 1-0 defeat to an own goal. This match would have been instantly forgettable except for the fact that the scorer of the own goal was Gareth Bowen in his final match for the team before departing for pastures new. This time when Sherbourne A were welcomed to Monmouth there was a steely determination in the ranks of the Ross team. Despite holding the upper hand for most of the match, Ross yet again gifted Sherbourne with an own goal. However unlike before they also managed to convert 3 goals for themselves. These resulted from great periods of play from the defenders; James Adamson, Greg Weston, Edward Peck, Sean Couch and rising star Alex Roden, through the mid-field made up of Chris Chalk (capt), Andy Cross, Gareint Morris, Richard Stewart, Ben Da Cunha, right up to the forward line of Richard Harbottle, Andy Couch, Wilem Haagen and Charles Exton. In all this outfield self congratulation, it is important to recognise the immense contribution in goal by Seb Sullivan. Without his assured presence between the sticks, the result could still have been different.

As always a very special thanks must go to the match officials, Richard Jennison and Maaike Van Dijk.

It was a very tight call between any of the three goal scorers, but Richard Harbottle just edged it to be nominated South Herefordshire Motorcaravans man of the match.
