Ross 1st XI Close the game with a smashing victory.

Ross were the guests this weekend as they prepared to face Leominster A, both teams were raring to go with victory in mind. Ross start the game taking first push back, it soon became totally obvious that it wasn't going to be easy for Leominster, as attacker Phil Evans showed with an early strike at goal. The home team defended well managing to keep it out of the net. It didn't take long before Tom Walton was on a drive taking the ball into the Leominster 'D' scoring an early goal for Ross, as the opposition retaliate the defenders Rich Jennison, Tony Faulkner, Dave Skyrme, Luke Ward and Brian Clare remain unbreakable. Now well into the 1st half the Ross midfield Tom Walton, Sam Warner, Nick Clark, Kristian Franklin and Matt Saunders step up the pressure on the Leominster defence allowing attacker Adrian Williams to get away and claim his first goal. Once again the home team went on attack calling Andy Ridgway to save a short corner. In a complete turn around the opposition give away a short corner, Tom Walton steps up takes the ball slamming it past the keeper into the goal. Still not content Ross keep up the attacks with Evans already coming close in the early stages he's ready to try again not taking any risks he sends the ball whistling into the bottom corner of the goal. The visitors get one more opportunity with another short corner just before half time, Evans commits hitting it into the goal to claim his second. The whistle blew for half time and Ross gather in full of confidence with a 5-0 lead.

Returning to the pitch Ross started fairly laid back, allowing the Leominster players to break through into the 'D' managing to scrape one back for themselves. Williams didn't let that go unpunished scoring another goal for Ross, after a few more attempts the opposition managed to get another short corner which was cleanly flicked straight into the net. Both sides were now locked in midfield struggling to break away, with Ross managing to just break away and get the ball to Williams who went on to gracefully claim a stunning goal for his hat-trick. Warner now wanted to prove nothing is impossible, taking the ball past the Leominster defence slamming it past their keeper into the goal. The home team now stepped up the pace wanting to prove they were still here, managing to break the Ross defence once more to claim their 3rd goal. Ross manage to get a short corner just before the final whistle, proving that it's not over Walton rounds off his tally for an amazing hat-trick. With the game finished Ross have another triumph and feel like they are flying without wings.

Tom Walton was awarded South Hereford Motorcaravan Centre Ltd Man of the Match for his excellent performance throughout and a beautiful trio of goals.
