Ross 1st XI leave without any goals.

Ross ventured away to play Lansdown B this weekend and after last weeks victory, hopes were high for another strong performance. The home team start, as Ross put the pressure on launching themselves straight into the game. Hoping to get an early lead Walton takes a shot with it just skimming wide of the post, still they remained positive keeping the ball in the Lansdown half with the midfielders, Tom Walton, Sam Warner, Nick Clarke, Kristian Franklin and Matt Saunders working hard to supply attackers Phil Evans and Adrian Williams with chances on goal. The home side were not allowing Ross an easy ride, even with short corners being awarded to both teams in quick succession, neither could take the lead. The defenders Rich Jennison, Brian Clare, Jack Wilkinson, Luke Ward and Dave Skyrme worked on the same principals never give in as he who dares, wins. This still kept keeper Andy Ridgway on his toes as the Lansdown attacks were coming thick and fast. Unfortunately for Ross the ended up being blinded by the lights still unable to score before the half time whistle blew.

They had to try and remain positive and fight for goals more than ever, as Ross return to the field it's as if it all goes out the window. The opposition were still making it difficult for Ross to make threats on goal, and even when they did manage to break through the shot was either saved or sent wide. It became soul destroying for Ross as they battled on, like it was on the flip of a coin they were losing possession not making strong tackles, unable to create the space for the attackers. The match was drawing to a close as Ross tried to keep their cool and not allow a late goal from Lansdown B with even more short corners awarded to Ross and still no goals, their confidence was starting to slip and mistakes were being made, they returned home with deep thoughts in mind as to what to do different next weekend.
