Ross 1st XI battled hard but didn't get the win.

Ross took first push back and were keen for an early lead, both sides looked confident. Ross knew they had their work cut out, so pushed up the pitch getting a few early opportunities but none resulted in them taking the lead. The attackers Phil Evans, Adrian Williams and Geraint Morris were getting slightly itchy to score. Even with Ross keeping most of the possession, the home team were still managing to get opportunities against Andy Ridgway in goal, who kept his team in the game more than once after they had broke through the usually sturdy defence, Luke Ward, Richard Jennison, Jack Wilkinson and Dave Skyrme. It was Geraint Morris who was called upon to score, with great team work he slipped the ball past the Cirencester defender giving Ross a huge boost, unfortunately it was short lived as the opposition were awarded a short corner from which they equalised with the first half coming to an end Phil Evans upped his game and pocketed another goal for Ross giving them a 2-1 advantage at half time.

Still with everything to play for both teams returned to the pitch, the home side take the push back and are eager to take control of the last half. Ross keep pushing and get awarded another short corner, where Tom Walton receives the ball and slots another past the Cirencester A keeper. Now the opposition were taking any attempts at the Ross goal as possible, even with the midfielders Tom Walton, Sam Warner, Matt Saunders, Kristian Franklin and Ben DaCunha working hard to keep possession. Cirencester claw another goal back closing the gap, they kept Ross on their toes being awarded a penalty flick which went wide but then equalised from a short corner soon after. Now feeling the pressure Ross picked up their game to take the lead with another strike from Phil Evans, the opposition turned it back on Ross scoring another equaliser. With the game coming to an end both teams were scrapping for possession and another chance on goal, the home team were awarded yet another short corner just before the final whistle, they managed to scramble the ball across the line to win the game 5-4.
