Ross 1st XI steamroller Newent A to keep top spot

Ross travelled away to play Newent A and remained optimistic of a win, the home team wanted the three points just as much, which showed as soon as Ross started. Newent A wanted to cause as much hassle as possible. Ross were awarded a short corner early on which the home side defended well, however the visitors battled back for Tom Walton to score the first goal. The home side battle back and kept the defenders Luke Ward, Richard Jennison, Dave Skyrme and Jack Wilkinson busy trying to protect Andy Ridgway in goal. It took attacker Adrian Williams to settle Ross' nerves by scoring from a short corner, Newent A were now looking to get back in the game step up their game to get a few more attempts on the Ross goal however they couldn't score. It was Nick Clarke who was next to find the net scoring Ross' 3rd, swiftly followed by Adrian Williams claiming his second flicking it past the keeper just before the half time whistle blew.

The second half starts and the home team takes the push back and after a few attempts Newent A struggled but scraped another goal back, with that Ross retaliated and Walton scored soon after from a short corner. The Ross midfielders Tom Walton, Sam Warner, Nick Clarke and Kristian Franklin provided the attackers Adrian Williams, Phil Evans and Geraint Morris with a few more opportunities. The home team turned it around and got a number of short corners in a row and managed to grab another goal, but Ross kept all the other attempts out of the net. It was Sam Warner, who took revenge on Newent by scoring two goals in quick succession, it was in the final stages of the game when Nick Clarke stepped up once again to slam another home for Ross giving them a smashing 8-0 victory over Newent A.

Nick Clarke was awarded the South Hereford Motorcaravan Centre Ltd Man of the Match for his 2 goals and scorching runs up & down the pitch.
