Ross suffer a loss in a friendly against Leominster A.

The home team took to the pitch ready for anything, within minutes attacker Adrian Williams had scored. Leo scored an equaliser despite the home teams efforts the opposition manage to score another before half time from a short corner.

After half time Ross were still determined to win, Ridgway stops the opposition from scoring but they follow up with a clean sweep into the net taking them further into the lead now Ross know they have to step up their game. After several attempts Williams scores another goal, the shots just keep on coming but Ross just cant manage to score in the meantime Leominster A mount up another attack just getting into the 'd' they manage to claim a 4th goal, with time running out Ross are now working desperately to get more goals, it was Williams who found the net once again just before the final whistle.
